

Call for OPA Annual Conference Poster Session Proposals

DEADLINE: February, 5th 2017

OPA would like to invite students and professionals to submit poster session proposals highlighting this year's conference theme:

Psychology for all ages and stages: Considering culture, bias and advocacy throughout a career

OPA will be holding this poster session at the 2016 Annual Conference in Eugene, Oregon, Saturday, May 6, 2017.

If you are interested in submitting a proposal for a poster session, please email the OPA office at info@opa.org with the following information:

1. Name of the presenters
2. Name of professor/instructor sponsoring poster submission
3. Documentation of faculty sponsorship
4. Title of the poster session
5. Abstract no more than 300 words
6. Contact information, including email & phone number
7. Optional: The award category under which you would like to be evaluated
* Select ONE from the choices below:

Professionalism & Relational Competency: For demonstration of the values and integrity of professional psychology and/or relationships with a range of clients as they relate to the field of psychology

Science & Application Competency: For empirical demonstration, application, and evaluation of practices, interventions, and programs

Education & Systems Competency: For demonstration of learning strategies, educational accommodations, academic psychology and/or differing roles, worldviews professional standards, and contributions across contexts and systems.

Poster session applications must be received by the OPA office by February 5th, 2017.

Note: All poster session applications will be reviewed by the OPA conference committee. The primary applicant will be notified by April 7th, 2017 of their proposal status.