Implicit Bias
Justice Adrienne Nelson
Oregon Supreme Court

Course Description
This presentation will identify what unconscious bias is, describe how unconscious bias can impact perceptions, actions, decisions, actions including outcomes and strategies to interrupt it.

Speaker
Justice Adrienne Nelson was appointed to the Oregon Supreme Court on January 2, 2018, making her the first African American to sit on the state’s highest court and on any appellate state court. Her election to a six-year term in November 2018 made her the first African American woman elected statewide in Oregon. In 2006, she was appointed as a trial judge on the Multnomah County Circuit Court in Portland, Oregon, making her the second African American female judge in the state of Oregon. Justice Nelson is a sought-after speaker on a variety of topics including diversity, inclusion, equity, community engagement, leadership and professional development. Throughout her career, Justice Nelson has been involved in many national, state, local, and specialty bar associations, often serving in a leadership capacity. She is currently the Chair of the Oregon Supreme Court Council on Inclusion and Fairness, the American Bar Association (ABA) Diversity and Inclusion Center and the Diversity and Inclusion Advisory Council. In the community, she sits on the Oregon Historical Society Board, the Literary Arts Board, the Reed College Board of Trustees and the Oregon Community Foundation Portland Leadership Council where she chairs the Connection to the Black Communities committee. She also sits on the Girl Scouts Beyond the Bars (GSBB) Advisory Board of which she formerly chaired.
Oregon Psychological Association Webinar Series

Implicit Bias
Friday, March 26 | 12:00-1:00 pm

Workshop Classifications and Continuing Education Credits

Each workshop is classified according to the following system:

- Level 1: general or introductory content aimed at a diverse audience.
- Level 2: psychologically sophisticated content, at either introductory or more advanced levels, aimed at general professional audiences.
- Level 3: highly advanced theoretical or technical content, aimed at expert audiences.

Level 2 and 3 presentations will typically warrant CE credit for a licensed psychologist. Both level and number of hours for each workshop are indicated and official letters of completion will be awarded to participants who attend the entire workshop. APA guidelines specify that no letter of attendance will be awarded for partial workshop attendance.

Level 2 and 3 offerings are typically accepted by the Oregon Board of Psychologist Examiners. However, Oregon licensed psychologists should consult the official Continuing Education Guidelines produced by the Oregon Board of Psychologist Examiners and note that there is no pre-certification of continuing education credit by the Board of Psychologist Examiners.
